Why should librarians care about pop culture?

“...be an enthusiast in life. If you are interested in something, no matter what it is, go at it full speed ahead. Embrace it with both arms, hug it, love it and above all become passionate about it.”

-Roald Dahl

Voldemort Can't Stop the Rock

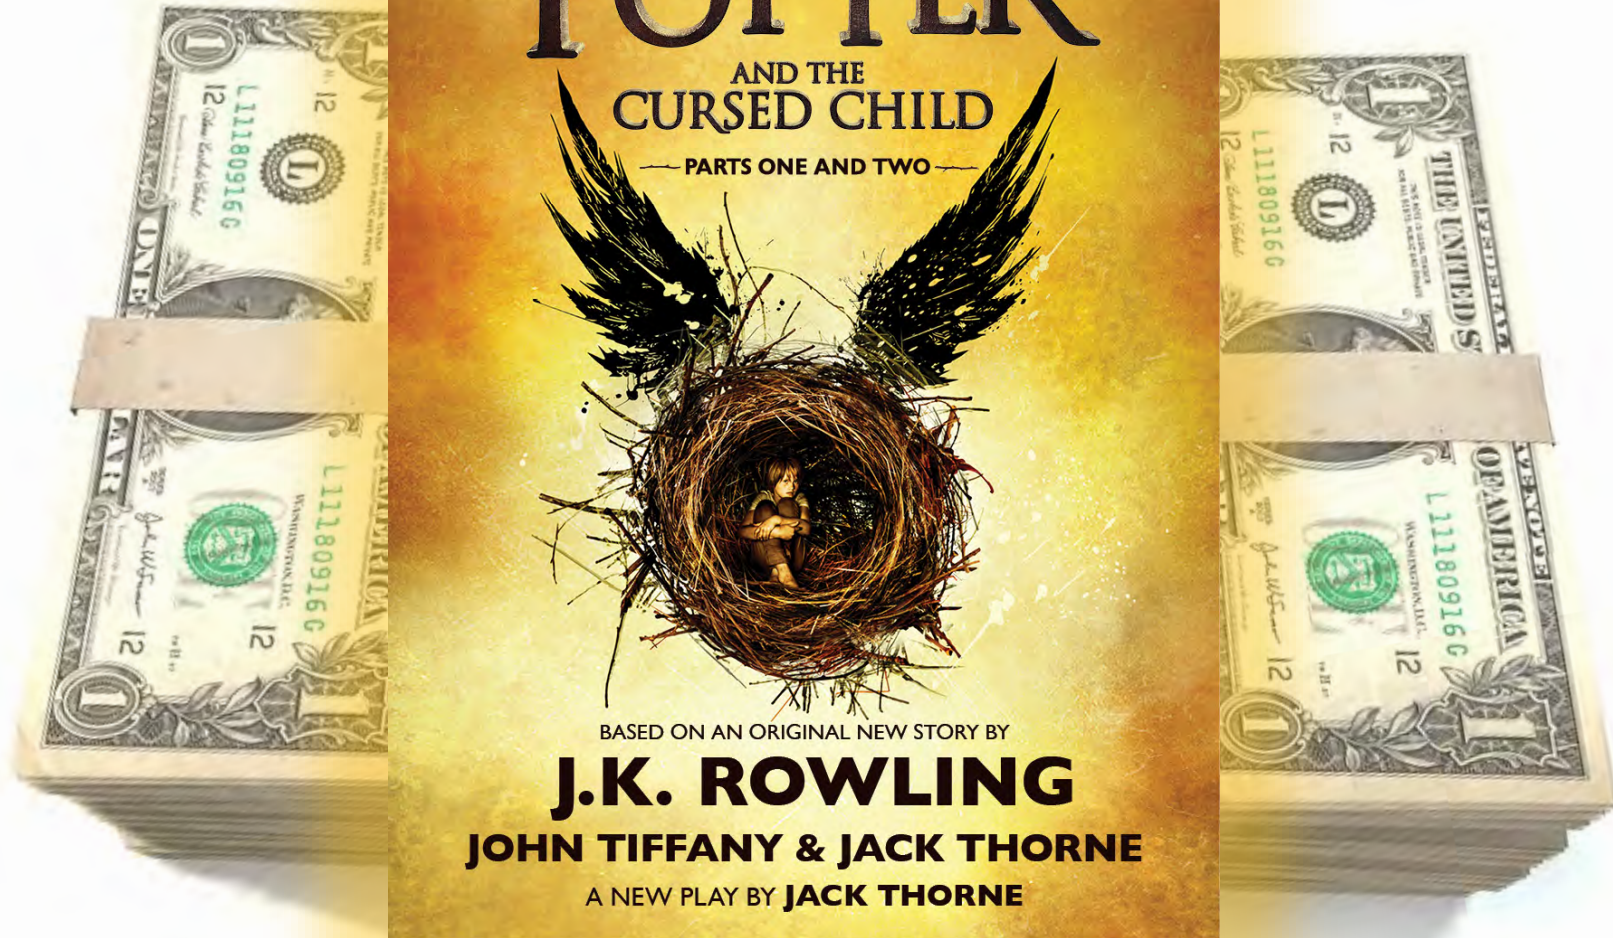

AD 2007

Harry and the Potters get big fast

- A photograph of three teenagers sitting on a grey carpeted floor, looking at a book together. The teenager on the left is wearing a white shirt and a colorful beanie. The teenager in the middle is wearing a white shirt with a red and yellow striped tie. The teenager on the right is wearing a black t-shirt with 'FISH' and 'FIDERS' visible, a red beanie, and blue shorts. A semi-transparent white box with a list of bullet points is overlaid on the image.
- Demonstrating that the community values youth
 - Forming supportive relationships with non-parental adults
 - Empowering teens to serve as community resources
 - Helping teens build cultural competence

Lemonade

A stylized illustration of a night scene. The sky is a deep purple with a crescent moon and stars. In the foreground, a dark purple classic car with glowing headlights is driving on a road, kicking up a cloud of dust. To the right, a tall, dark water tower stands on a hill. To the left, a signpost has a sign that says "ME TO" and "VALE". In the background, there are silhouettes of houses and a utility pole with power lines. The overall style is graphic and atmospheric.

Goodnight, Night Vale.
Goodnight.
